

AKADEMOS CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Established in Melbourne, Akados Society is a volunteer run not-for-profit organisation with the objective of providing financial and academic assistance to disadvantaged young students. We provide grants to students facing financial challenges in the pursuit of their educational goals by means of a scholarship program. We enable the young, the willing and the talented, so they are not left behind.

Why Education?

- It is a fundamental human right.
- It is smart economics.
- It closes gender gap.
- It has a profound impact on the health of a community.
- It is empowering.

Why Become a Corporate Sponsor?

By becoming a Corporate Sponsor you will help change the lives of the students who are the most in need in the community. They are disadvantaged and deprived. Your support will go a long way in keeping their hopes alive and their ambitions ablaze.

Your business will immensely benefit from Akados' active marketing and communication infrastructure including our website, YouTube and Vimeo channels, Facebook page and our online and print publications. We will also promote your business in our engagements with members of the community across Australia. Following is a detailed list of benefits at different levels of Akados sponsorship:
